

Is this all poetry?

Maybe not.

What is The Purpose of Life?

Be a True Friend to Yourself First,

Make Love with Complete Abandon,

Leave Your Money to Someone You Love -Who Loves You Back,

Baby, I will always be there.

My passionate heart...

It cries for you.

I wrote a thing called "The Bedrock"

To grow this theme.

To sum it all up.

Is this all poetry?

Maybe not.

What is The Purpose of Life?

Have Sex With Someone You Love.

Be Born.

Die in Your Sleep.

The new meaning of the poem I have created with synthesis is realizing the purpose of life is to love someone, and telling them. To find yourself in the process first, loving yourself. Putting all of your love into someone, and them loving you back and them giving you their all. And that's how you end up living a successful life to the best of your ability.
